U.S. House of Representatives Agriculture Committee Passes Bad Food Stamp Bill

On May 5, 2013 the U.S. House of Representatives passed H.R. 1947 that made significant cuts in the SNAP program.

- Limiting categorical eligibility to households receiving cash assistance through other low-income means tested assistance programs;
- Medical marijuana will not be considered as a medical expense;
- Receipt of LIHEAP benefits must be over $20 to be used as a standard utility deduction;
- Limit the employment and training program to students who are enrolled in specific career or technical education courses or basic education, remedial, and literacy courses;
- Prohibits Government funded recruitment activities such as outreach in the USA or in foreign counties.
- Eliminate performance bonuses provided to state agencies for effectively administering the SNAP program; and
- Reduces funding of Food Stamp Employment and Training program from $90 million to $79 million.

This is similar to the bill passed by this same committee last year.

The bill would most likely pass the House and then await for Senate action.

The Jerry Brown 2013-2014 May Revise Proposal Fails to Address Child Poverty Ravishing California

On May 14, 2013, Jerry Brown released his May Revised State Budget. The revised budget takes $2,029,000 from the mouths of CalWORKs babies and children living on a fixed income FROZEN at just $6 above the 1985 level so he can proudly announce that the budget has a surplus. This represents 30% of the CalWORKs money being involuntary taken from CalWORKs impoverished families and used as an involuntary contribution to the Jerry Brown 2013-2014 State Budget. See TABLE #1.

It is estimated COLA under the California Necessities Index (CNI) for 2013-2014 would have been a little more than 2% or 3%. On the other hand counties single allocation received a whopping 7% increase - $191 million. Because of these actions, Jerry Brown has achieved another milestone— California leads the Nation in supplemental poverty ratings by the U.S. census bureau – and his budget says “who cares”.

Meanwhile the counties continue to fleece welfare recipients participating in a welfare-to-work (WtW) activity out of transportation supportive services. About 50% of the WtW participants are not receiving transportation. Counties have OPPOSED the suggestion that WtW participants be allowed to submit on-line transportation travel claims. While welfare administrators and DSS officials can readily reach and get a travel claim, counties intentionally do not make the travel claims for transportation accessible to CalWORKs WtW participants. This has been on-going since 1999 and the Legislature does not care. CCWRO has asked the Legislature for “supplemental report” language on this issue and this request has been rejected every time.

The following TABLE provides details of the CalWORKs state budget for 2013-2014. The proposed budget transfers $924,216 million dollars to the CalGrants program for persons who do not meet the CalWORKs eligibility requirements. Another notable line item is the $220,173 million taken from CalWORKs children and given to the child welfare service and foster care emergency assistance program. We do admit that the nonstop poverty caused by California's continuous fleecing of the CalWORKs program has resulted in increased child neglect abuse.
