Welfare rights

The Ventura County Welfare Rights Organization is presenting a special program to tell AFDC and welfare recipients their rights in the new workfare program and welfare.

The meeting will be Tuesday at 7 p.m. in All Saints Episcopal Church, Oxnard.

Kevin Aslanian, director of the Coalition of California Welfare Rights Organizations, will give a legal workshop on "Workfare," the new program begun by the Welfare Department in October.

The meetings are bilingual and children are welcome. For information, call 643-8733.
